

An Entirely New Road Map For The Biggest Financial Decision Your Family Will Ever Make

The cost of college has been rising steadily for decades, and it shows no signs of slowing down. According to the College Board, the average cost of tuition and fees at a four-year public college has increased by more than 250% since 1985. At private colleges, the increase has been even more dramatic, with costs rising by more than 300% over the same period.

This means that families are now facing a daunting financial challenge when it comes to paying for college. The average cost of a four-year public college is now over $20,000 per year, and the average cost of a four-year private college is over $40,000 per year. For many families, this is simply unaffordable.

But there is hope. There are a number of things that families can do to make college more affordable. One important step is to start saving early. Even small amounts of money saved each month can add up over time. Another important step is to explore all of the financial aid options that are available. There are a number of scholarships, grants, and loans available to help families pay for college.

If you are a family facing the challenge of paying for college, you need to have a plan. This book will provide you with the roadmap you need to make the best possible decision for your family.
