Annette Funicello, the beloved star of the Mickey Mouse Club and Beach Party films, passed away in 2013. Fans around the world mourned the loss of their beloved "Annette," and many shared their memories and thoughts about her on social media and in online forums.

This book is a collection of those tributes, offering a glimpse into the life and legacy of one of the most popular and enduring stars of her generation.

Annette Funicello was born in Utica, New York, on October 22, 1942. She began her career as a child model, and at the age of 12, she was cast as one of the original Mouseketeers on the Mickey Mouse Club.

The Mickey Mouse Club was a huge success, and Annette quickly became one of the most popular Mouseketeers. She was known for her beautiful smile, her infectious laugh, and her sweet singing voice.

After the Mickey Mouse Club ended in 1959, Annette went on to star in a number of Beach Party films, including Beach Blanket Bingo (1965), How to Stuff a Wild Bikini (1965), and Pajama Party (1964). These films were hugely popular with teenagers, and Annette became a teen idol.

In the 1970s, Annette retired from acting to focus on her family. She married Glen Holt in 1965, and they had three children together.

Annette was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis in 1987. She bravely battled the disease for many years, and she became an advocate for others with MS.

Annette Funicello passed away on April 8, 2013, at the age of 70. She was survived by her husband, her three children, and her four grandchildren.

Annette Funicello was a beloved star who brought joy to millions of people around the world. She was a talented actress, a beautiful singer, and a loving wife and mother. She will be remembered for her kind heart, her infectious smile, and her enduring legacy as one of the most popular stars of her generation.

The tributes in this book are a testament to the love and admiration that Annette Funicello inspired in her fans and friends. They share their memories of her, her impact on their lives, and the reasons why she will never be forgotten.
