What is the Thinking Skills Assessment?

The Thinking Skills Assessment (TSA) is a standardized test that is used by many universities in the UK as part of their admissions process. The TSA is designed to assess your problem-solving skills, critical thinking skills, and your ability to apply these skills to new and unfamiliar situations.

The TSA is a 90-minute test that consists of two sections:

- Section 1: Multiple-choice questions
- Section 2: Essay questions

The multiple-choice questions test your ability to solve problems, think critically, and apply your knowledge to new situations. The essay questions test your ability to communicate your ideas clearly and concisely, and to support your arguments with evidence.
