Kelly Slater is a professional surfer who has won 11 world championships, more than any other surfer in history. He is considered by many to be the greatest surfer of all time.

Slater was born in Cocoa Beach, Florida, in 1972. He began surfing at the age of five, and he quickly showed a natural talent for the sport. He won his first professional surfing competition at the age of 16, and he went on to win his first world championship at the age of 20.

Slater's career has been marked by both success and controversy. He has been criticized for his outspoken personality and his sometimes brash behavior. However, there is no doubt that he is one of the most successful and influential surfers in history.

In his book, People In The News, Slater shares his story of success and inspiration. He talks about the challenges he has faced, the lessons he has learned, and the advice he has for others who want to achieve their dreams.

People In The News is a must-read for anyone who is interested in surfing, success, or inspiration. Slater's story is a reminder that anything is possible if you set your mind to it.
