Marilyn Monroe was one of the most iconic figures of the 20th century. Her beauty, her charisma, and her star power made her a global sensation. But behind the glamorous facade, Marilyn was also a complex and troubled woman. She struggled with addiction, mental illness, and a tumultuous personal life.

In this book, we take an intimate look at Marilyn's life beyond the silver screen. We explore her relationships with her children, her husbands, and her friends. We also learn about her struggles with addiction and mental illness.

Through interviews with Marilyn's family and friends, as well as her own writings, we gain a new understanding of this complex and fascinating woman. We see her as a mother, a wife, and a teacher. We see her as a woman who was both loved and hated, admired and reviled.

This book is a must-read for anyone who wants to know the real Marilyn Monroe. It is a story of love, loss, and triumph. It is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
