A Mischievous God in the Modern World

When the mischievous god Loki is banished to Earth as punishment for his antics, he brings with him his signature brand of chaos. As he meddles in the lives of unsuspecting mortals, Loki creates an uproar that is as absurd as it is hilarious.

A Cast of Unforgettable Characters

Alongside Loki, readers will encounter a cast of equally memorable characters. There's Thor, the thunder-wielding warrior, who struggles to adapt to the modern world; Sif, the golden-haired goddess, who runs a successful hair salon; and Hel, the goddess of the underworld, who is surprisingly adept at social media.

A whirlwind of Mishaps and Mayhem

The novel follows Loki as he wreaks havoc on the world. He causes TVs to explode, turns traffic lights into disco balls, and even transforms the president into a giant chicken. Each mishap is more outrageous and laugh-out-loud funny than the last.

A Heartwarming Twist

Despite the chaos and absurdity, 'Odin Blew Up My TV' also has a heartwarming twist. As Loki encounters kindness and compassion from unlikely sources, he begins to question his mischievous nature. The result is a surprisingly touching and thought-provoking tale.

A Must-Read for Fans of Humor and Mythology

Whether you're a fan of Norse mythology, urban fantasy, or simply love to laugh, 'Odin Blew Up My TV' is a must-read. Its witty dialogue, unforgettable characters, and hilarious hijinks will keep you entertained from beginning to end.

Free Download 'Odin Blew Up My TV' now and embark on a side-splitting adventure with the Norse gods in the modern world.
