Writing Section

The Writing section comprises two tasks: Task 1 and Task 2. Task 1 requires you to write a 150-word response to a graph, table, or diagram. Task 2 requires you to write a 250-word essay in response to a given topic.

Task 1 Practice Question:

The following graph shows the average monthly rainfall in London over the past year. Write a report describing the key trends and any possible explanations for them.

Task 2 Practice Question:

Discuss the following topic: "Technology has both positive and negative effects on our lives." In your essay, consider both the benefits and drawbacks of technology, and reach a balanced conclusion.

Speaking Section

The Speaking section comprises three parts: an introduction, a cue card task, and a discussion. You will be interviewed by an examiner for approximately 15 minutes.

Part 1:

General questions about yourself, such as your hobbies, job, or hometown.

Part 2:

A cue card task, where you will be given a topic and asked to speak about it for 1-2 minutes. You will have 1 minute to prepare.

Example Cue Card Topic:

Describe a time when you had to overcome a challenge. What was the challenge, and how did you overcome it?

Part 3:

A discussion related to the topic of your cue card task. The examiner will ask you follow-up questions to explore your ideas further.

Tips for Success:

- Practice regularly using authentic materials.
- Time yourself to ensure you can answer within the time constraints.
- Focus on using accurate grammar and vocabulary.
- Develop a range of ideas and opinions on potential topics.
