Some of the most popular trails in Banff and Lake Louise include:

- The Banff Gondola Trail: This scenic trail offers stunning views of the Banff townsite and the surrounding mountains. It's a great choice for beginners and intermediate skiers.
- The Lake Louise Ski Area: This world-class resort is home to some of the most challenging terrain in the Rockies. The back bowls offer endless powder stashes, while the front side trails are perfect for intermediate and advanced skiers.
- Sunshine Village: This family-friendly resort is located just a short drive from Banff. Sunshine Village offers a wide variety of trails for all ability levels, as well as a terrain park and a tubing hill.

Whistler and Blackcomb are two of the largest ski resorts in North America, and they offer some of the most diverse terrain in the world. From beginner-friendly slopes to challenging backcountry adventures, there's something for everyone at Whistler and Blackcomb.

Some of the most popular trails in Whistler and Blackcomb include:

- The Whistler Peak to Peak Gondola: This iconic gondola ride offers breathtaking views of the Whistler and Blackcomb mountains. It's a great way to access the upper slopes of both mountains.
- The Peak 2 Peak 360 Restaurant: This revolving restaurant is located at the top of the Peak 2 Peak Gondola. It offers stunning views of the surrounding mountains and is a great place to enjoy a meal or a drink.
- The Blackcomb Glacier: This year-round ski area offers some of the most challenging terrain in Whistler and Blackcomb. The glacier is home to a variety of chutes, bowls, and couloirs, as well as a terrain park.

Revelstoke and Fernie are two of the most extreme ski destinations in the Canadian Rockies. These resorts offer some of the steepest and most challenging terrain in the world, perfect for advanced and expert skiers.

Some of the most popular trails in Revelstoke and Fernie include:

- The North Bowl at Revelstoke: This massive bowl offers endless powder stashes and challenging chutes. It's a great choice for expert skiers who are looking for a true challenge.
- The Currie Bowl at Fernie: This iconic bowl is home to some of the steepest terrain in the Canadian Rockies. It's a popular destination for extreme skiers and snowboarders.
- The White Pass at Revelstoke: This backcountry ski area offers a variety of challenging terrain, including steep chutes, couloirs, and tree runs.

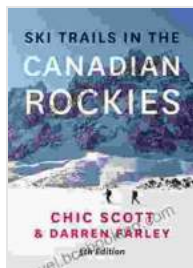

Kimberley and Kicking Horse are two of the hidden gems of the Canadian Rockies. These resorts offer a variety of trails for all ability levels, as well as a more relaxed and laid-back atmosphere than the larger resorts.

Some of the most popular trails in Kimberley and Kicking Horse include:

- The Kimberley Alpine Resort: This family-friendly resort offers a wide variety of trails for all ability levels, as well as a terrain park and a tubing hill.

- The Kicking Horse Mountain Resort: This resort is known for its challenging terrain, but it also offers a variety of trails for intermediate and beginner skiers.
- The Purcell Wilderness Conservancy: This non-profit organization offers guided backcountry ski trips in the Purcell Mountains.

The Canadian Rockies offer some of the best skiing in the world, with a wide variety of trails for all ability levels. Whether you're a beginner looking for a gentle slope to learn on or an expert skier looking for a challenging backcountry adventure, you're sure to find the perfect trail for you in the Canadian Rockies.
