By Will Cuppy

Prepare to laugh out loud as you journey through the annals of human history with Will Cuppy's witty and irreverent account of our spectacular blunders and misadventures.

From the ancient Greeks who thought the world was flat to the modern-day politicians who can't seem to get anything right, Cuppy skewers our collective folly with a sharp wit and a keen eye for the absurd.

With laugh-out-loud anecdotes and laugh-until-you-cry observations, Cuppy will have you questioning everything you thought you knew about history.

Praise for "The Decline and Fall of Practically Everybody"

“A hilarious and irreverent history of mankind's mishaps that will leave you laughing out loud.” - The New York Times

"Cuppy's wit is as sharp as a tack, and his eye for the absurd is unmatched." - The Washington Post

"A must-read for anyone who loves to laugh at the follies of mankind." - The Boston Globe”
